GREAT TEMPERANCE WAVE IS SWEEPING OVER SOLID SOUTH

Georgia in Lead and Other States Are Expected to Follow in Eliminating Whiskey.

Atlanta, Ga. August 28—The southhas begun to fight crime with prohibition.

When Georgia went dry, it was because of the menace of whiskey-induced crime among the negroes and the lower class of whites. It was the state's eloquent reply to the Atlantariots. And not in Georgia alone, but through all the south the prohibitions wave is sweeping like a giant bream in the wake of the presidential muckrake. It is believed that Georgia's example is bound to be followed by other states of the section.

Never was Georgia disrupted as she was in the recent struggles. The Savannah Clearing House association protested, the seaport tewns went in structures is joined the opposition, but in spite of a spectaculiar campaign of obstacle and fillbustering the Hardeman-Covington bill was finally passed. a sweeping brobibition measure, making illegal the manufacture, sale and barter of liquors and intoxicating drinks throughout the state, and Gov. Hoke Smith, although part owner of the palatial Pledamont botel, the nude goddess in whose bar is famous the country over, has affixed his signature.

The bill takes effect January 1st, next

MONTEMAYOR HEARD FROM IN VANCOUVER

El Paso, Tex., August 28.— S. Mon-temayor, the missing jefe of Juarez, who disappeared on Monday, July 29 is now in Vancouver, British Colum-bia, according to a telegram sent by him to Mrs. Montemayor in Juarez

Sunday.

The telegram was in code form, it is said, which is believed to have been arranged by Montemayor before he left Juarez.

Effort has been made by the Juarez effort has been made by the Juarez.

He continued his westward journey to Benson and was later seen at Tuc-son on a Southern Pacific train and later he was heard from in Los An-

The telegram from Vancouver shows that he went up the const into Canada, evidently with the idea of tetting as far away as possible from the Mexican authorities, whom it is believed Montemayor fears because believed Montemayor fears because of alleged smuggling transactions in getting wheat from the United States into Mexico without paging duty.

Montemayor was granted 30 days' leave of absence by the officials of Chihuahua. Mex., but since that time Acting Governor Sanchez has appointed Mayor Mateus of Cases Grandes to take charge of the affairs of Juarez, and that official is now in charge.

Effort has been made by the Juarez officials to get some trace of Montemayor, but since he was at Les Angeles nothing has been heard from him.

After leaving Juarez in a carriage Montemayor is supposed to have driven to Anapara, a small station on the Southern Pacific, where effort was made to flag the westbound train. Fallure to stop the train resulted in Montemayor driving to Pelea, s. station on the El Paso & Southwestern, and at that point the mayor of Juarez boarded a train en route to Bisbee.
